Sec. 20-1. Definitions.

The following words, terms and phrases, when used in this chapter, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

Employee means any person over eighteen (18) years of age, other than a massage therapist, who renders any service in connection with the operation of a massage business and receives compensation from the operator of the business or patrons.

Health club means a gymnasium, fitness center or health spa that is used to maintain or enhance the aerobic condition or physical strength of individuals through the use of free weights or weight lifting machinery, aerobic exercises, running and jogging, game courts or swimming facilities.

Practice of massage therapy includes complimentary methods, including the external application of water, heat, cold, lubrication, salt scrubs, body wraps, or other topical preparations; and electromechanical devices that mimic or enhance the actions possible by the hands, under such circumstances that it is reasonably expected that the person receiving the massage or some third person on his or her behalf will pay money or give any other consideration or a gratuity therefor. Massage does not include medical diagnosis; high-velocity, low-amplitude thrust to a joint; electrical stimulation; application of ultrasound; or prescription of medicines.

Massage establishment means any establishment having a source of income or compensation derived from the practice of massage, and which has a fixed place of business where any person engages in or carries on any of the activities defined as massage. This definition does not include a regularly licensed hospital or dispensary, a place where massage of the face is for cosmetic or beautifying purposes, a place providing massage in the course of prescribed medical treatment by a physician or a health club, as defined herein, where massage is offered as an accessory service. Massage shall be considered an accessory service if the revenue received from the massage activities comprise no more than five (5) per centum of the gross receipts of the business location. A health club that offers massage as an accessory service shall be exempt from the permitting requirements, but is still required to annually submit an income statement to the police chief for review by the finance department to verify that the gross receipts for massage do not exceed five (5) per centum.

Massage therapist means any person who, for any consideration whatsoever, engages in the practice of massage.

Outcall massage service means any business, the function of which is to engage in or carry on massages at a location designated by the customer or client rather than at a massage establishment.

Patron means any person over eighteen (18) years of age, or a person under eighteen (18) years of age who is accompanied by a parent or guardian or who has written authorization from a parent or guardian confirmed by a massage therapist, who receives a massage under such circumstances that it is reasonably expected that he will pay money or give any other consideration therefor.

Sexual or genital area means genitals, pubic area, anus, or perineum of any person and the vulva or breasts of a female.

Sec. 20-2. Exemptions.

(c) All employees, including massage therapists, shall be clean and wear clean, nontransparent outer garments, covering the sexual and genital areas, whose use is restricted to the massage establishment. If employees are permitted to change clothing at the premises, a separate dressing room for each sex must be available on the premises with individual lockers for each employee. Doors to such dressing rooms shall open inward and shall be self-closing. Employee dressing rooms shall be separate from facilities utilized by customers.

(d) All massage establishments shall be provided with clean, laundered sheets and towels in sufficient quantity and shall be laundered after each use thereof and stored in a sanitary manner.

(e) No massage establishment granted a license under the provisions of this chapter shall place, publish or distribute or cause to be placed, published or distributed any advertisement picture or statement which is known or through the exercise of reasonable care should be known to be false, deceptive or misleading in order to induce any person to purchase or utilize any professional massage services.

Sec. 20-5. Minors.

No person shall permit any person under the age of eighteen (18) years to come or remain on the premises of any massage business establishment as massage therapist, employee, or patron, unless such person is accompanied by a parent or guardian or has written authorization from a parent or guardian confirmed by a massage therapist, or on the premises on lawful business unrelated to receiving or giving a massage.

If in the opinion of the police chief (or designee) there is probable cause to enter a massage establishment for the purpose of making inspections and examinations pursuant to this section, he shall request the owner or occupant thereof, or the licensee, to grant permission for such entry, and if refused, the police chief or his designee, shall make application for a search warrant showing why the search warrant should be issued for the purposes set forth in this chapter. The building official or fire chief, or their designees, shall similarly have the authority to inspect the premises of a massage establishment in order to determine compliance with the provisions of this chapter, upon request to the owner or occupant thereof, or the licensee. If entry is denied, the building official or fire chief shall report the denial to the police chief or his designee for appropriate action consistent with this section.

- (e) It shall be further unlawful for any permittee under this chapter to administer massage on an outcall basis. Such person shall administer massage solely within an establishment licensed to carry on such business under this chapter. Any violation of these provisions shall be deemed grounds for revocation of the permit granted pursuant to this chapter. The restriction on outcall massage shall not apply to a permittee who performs outcall massage: (1) at a hospital, a health care facility, rehabilitation facility or a facility the primary purpose of which is to provide services to or activities for persons who are disabled or fifty-five (55) years or older; (2) upon a customer or client who, because of reasons of physical defects or incapacities or due to illness is physically unable to travel

Such license may also be revoked or suspended after notice and hearing, upon the recommendations of the county health department that such business is being managed, conducted or maintained without regard to proper sanitation and hygiene. Revocation proceedings shall be conducted by an administrative hearing officer appointed by the council by resolution. Upon appointment, such individual shall serve as requested. The qualifications of the hearing officer shall include familiarity with building and health codes or other state or local laws or ordinances. The hearing officer shall provide notice of the hearing to the applicant, who shall be given opportunity to be heard and to present evidence on his behalf directly or by authorized representative(s).
