- HISTORICALLY HAUNTED DETROIT: THE DARKSIDE OF HISTORY BUS TOUR. From the days of the French settlers and the ghouls who tormented them, to the grim realities of early factories and their gruesome death tolls, Detroit is a town with a devilishly scary past. Its citizens have long straddled the line between good and evil, and more than a few rules have been broken over the centuries. As Halloween approaches, we spare a nervous glance toward Detroit's spooky side. It's never wise to travel alone through the storied corridors of history, so we willingly offer ourselves as your guides on this macabre journey through the Motor City's darkest historical moments.

Together with your professional step on guide, you'll learn the stories that have intrigued, scared, and delighted Motown's residents for generations, including the tale of the Nain Rouge, Detroit's own "Demon of the Strait," whose appearances warn of oncoming tragedy. Mobsters, soldiers, ghosts, social injustices, cemeteries, murders, pranks, Devil's Night, assassinations, hauntings, outbreaks of cholera, unexplained disappearances, wars, tricks, treats, and more await you on this 3-hour, Historically Haunted Detroit: The Dark Side of History Bus Tour!

- LUNCH AT TAQUERIA MI PUEBLO. [Detroit, MI.] A beloved Mexican restaurant established in the late 1990s, it began as a weekend taco operation in a family living room and has since grown into a bustling, family-run establishment known for its authentic Jalisco-style cuisine. You will choose your meal from a limited menu.
