Pittsburgh Panorama

Experience the best of western Pennsylvania on this delightful four-day getaway featuring the charm of Ohio's Amish Country and the vibrant energy of Pittsburgh. Savor authentic Amish hospitality, explore scenic backroads with a local guide, and discover world-class attractions including Phipps Conservatory, The Andy Warhol Museum, and the legendary home of the Pittsburgh Steelers. Enjoy a memorable dinner cruise on Pittsburgh's three rivers, panoramic city views from the historic Duquesne Incline, and a visit to the Pro Football Hall of Fame before returning home with lasting memories of this unforgettable Pittsburgh panorama.

Day 1: Wednesday, August 11

Amish Country Treasures

Travel to Ohio's Amish Country for an included buffet lunch at the Farmstead Restaurant. Accompanied by a local guide, explore scenic backroads, discover Amish and Mennonite traditions, enjoy a candle-carving demonstration at Lamp & Light Candle, and browse the delightful shops and bakery at Hershberger's Bakery & Farmers Market. Receive a handcrafted quilted potholder souvenir before continuing to Pittsburgh for dinner and check in for our 3 nights stay at the Sheraton Pittsburgh Hotel at Station Square.

Day 2: Thursday, August 12

Gardens, Pop Art & River Views

Begin the day exploring the breathtaking displays of Phipps Conservatory and Botanical Gardens, where vibrant seasonal flowers, exotic plants, and stunning glasshouses create a true urban oasis. Following an included boxed lunch, delve into the life and artistry of Pittsburgh native Andy Warhol during a guided visit to The Andy Warhol Museum, home to the world's largest collection of his works. This evening, relax aboard the Gateway Clipper Fleet as you enjoy a delicious dinner cruise accompanied by spectacular views of Pittsburgh's iconic skyline and three rivers.

Day 3: Friday, August 13

Steel City Highlights

Discover the rich history and distinctive neighborhoods of the Steel City with a knowledgeable local guide. Enjoy time for lunch on your own in Pittsburgh's vibrant Strip District, famed for its bustling markets, specialty shops, and local eateries. Continue to the home of the Pittsburgh Steelers for a behind-the-scenes stadium tour, offering a glimpse into the traditions of one of the NFL's most celebrated franchises. Tonight, savor an included dinner at LeMont, renowned for its panoramic city views, before experiencing a memorable round-trip ride aboard the historic Duquesne Incline high above the confluence of Pittsburgh's rivers.

Day 4: Saturday, August 14

Gridiron Legends & Homeward Bound

As you begin the journey home, stop at the Pro Football Hall of Fame to celebrate the legends and unforgettable moments that have shaped professional football. Explore fascinating exhibits, treasured memorabilia, and inspiring stories before departing with wonderful memories of your Pittsburgh adventure.
